This image shows a vertical strip of a manuscript page, likely from a book. The strip features a decorative border with a repeating geometric pattern, possibly a chain-link or knotwork design. The pattern is rendered in a dark ink or pigment. The background of the strip is a light, aged, cream-colored paper. The strip is oriented vertically, showing the edge of the page.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some faint smudges and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. The left edge of the page is bound, showing the stitching and the inner cover material. There is no text or other markings on the page.
